By registering for the course you are agreeing to follow the structure planned by the tutor, which includes participating in collective decision-making.

The course outline provides a summary of the course structure. This will not be identical to the content of the upcoming course because it is constantly revised, updated and improved. You will receive a copy of the course pack at least 3 days before the start of the course.

Course Format

Due to Covid-19, this course will be delivered live online with the possibility of hybrid Off-Site Visits and/or other course modules wherever appropriate and possible, depending on the existing circumstances and pending the collective decision by all participants.

The course will be delivered via Schoology, an online Learning Management System (LMS) and Zoom, a web conferencing platform. Both of these are user-friendly and you will receive detailed guidance on how to access them at least three days before the course begins.

Participation & Accessibility

This course will be held online, with the possible exception of hybrid Off-site Visits if these are feasible. If we have hybrid sessions you will have a choice between participating by travelling to locations such as London-based museums or galleries, or participating online from your location.

Using the course schedule as a starting point we will use collective decision-making to modify and adjust the course to our needs. Be prepared to take an active role in deciding how the course unfolds and making your voice heard in discussions.

To ensure that we all start from an equal footing please include any access requirements or concerns in the registration form. This includes anything that might prevent you from participating fully in the course.

Attendance

Please make sure that you are able to attend the scheduled course dates before registering. Sessions will begin and end at the stated times. Any sessions that you are unable to attend cannot be refunded or rescheduled. If you miss classes due to illness or other reasons beyond your control I can offer additional support subject to additional tuition fees.
